

From a Railway Carriage Missing Words

Can you fill in suggestions for the missing words?

Faster than _____, _____ than witches,
Bridges and houses, hedges and _____;
And charging along like _____ in a _____,
All through the meadows the horses and cattle:
All of the sights of the hill and the plain
Fly as _____ as _____;
And ever again, in the _____ of an eye,
_____ stations whistle by.

Here is a child who _____ and _____,
All by himself and gathering brambles;
Here is a _____ who stands and gazes;
And here is the green for _____ the daisies!
Here is a _____ runaway in the road
Lumping along with _____ and _____;
And here is a _____, and there is a _____:
Each a glimpse and gone _____!

by R. L. Stevenson

